Dissertations and Forensics, through the year.

There are frequent written translations of Latin and Greek into English, as well as the Exercises of translating English into Latin and Greek by the members of each class; and the members of the Senior Class are required frequently to present written analyses of the authors and subjects belonging to this part of the course of studies. Each student is required to present a composition once a month to one of the Professors to whom he recites, and there are declamations in the chapel weekly on Friday evening, by the classes in divisions. A Bible recitation is attended by all the Students on Sabbath evenings.

Admission.

Candidates for admission into the College, are examined by the Faculty, and placed in the class which they are prepared to enter. Candidates for admission into any particular class must stand an examination on all the course previously pursued by the class. In all cases the candidate is required to present satisfactory testimonials as to his moral character and standing in the institution which he last attended. Examinations for admission, commence on Tuesday before the session opens.

Students desiring to pursue a particular branch of study, are permitted to enter any class in College for which they are found prepared, subject, however, to the direction of the Faculty in the amount of study required, which shall in all cases be equal to that of regular students.

Religious Exercises.

STUDENTS are required to attend prayers in the chapel, Bible class on the Sabbath, and church in such places as their parents or guardians shall request; or without such request, in the place appointed by the Faculty.

By an act of the board of Trustees, wounded soldiers of the late Confederate armies, are admitted free of tuition.

Halls and Libraries.

The halls of the Literary Societies are fitted up with great taste and neatness, and the libraries containing about 3,500 volumes each, have been selected with care, and are constantly increasing by additions from the choicest productions of the modern press.

Location, Plemarks, &c.

Hampden Sidney College is situated in Prince Edward County, Va. By a daily stage to Farmville, which is seven miles off, it has connection with the railroads of the country. The locality is proverbially one of the most healthy in Virginia. Union Theological Seminary is in its immediate vicinity, and the students of either institution have access to the lecture rooms and libraries of the other, free of charge. The College is surrounded by a community distinguished for intelligence, morality and piety, in the families of which students may enjoy all the social advantages consistent with a life of study. Its quiet situation in the country, removed from the bustle of life, and from the temptations incident to town or city, associated with the above-named advantages, renders this College one of the most desirable retreats to every student who aims to secure the thorough culture of his mind and heart, and the formation of correct habits.
